TOWN DAY

1991

DESPITE THE RAIN, TOWN DAY WAS ONCE AGAIN A SUCCESS. FROM SENIOR CLASS SLUSH TO ITALIAN SAUSAGES, TOWN DAY HAD EVERYTHING. THE MOST POPULAR STAND WAS THE STUDENT COUNCIL "SPONGE IN THE FACE" BOOTH. ONCE AGAIN, OFFICER DUFF STOLE THE SHOW WITH HIS OWN SPECIAL BRAND OF COMEDY. NOT! THE CLASS OF 1992 SHOWED UP IN FORCE TO TAKE PART IN THE FESTIVITIES.

SENIOR CLASS DANCE

ON SEPTEMBER 27TH, THE CLASS OF '92 HOSTED THE "TERMINATE YOUR SUMMERTIME BLUES" DANCE. THE CAFETERIA WAS ADORNED WITH A GRAND TOTAL OF 1 ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER POSTER, BUT THE LACK OF DECORATION DIDN'T STOP ANYONE FROM HAVING A GOOD TIME. THE DJ PLAYED EVERYTHING FROM VAN MORRISON TO BBD. THE HIGHLIGHT OF THE EVENING WAS UNDOUBTEDLY THE LIMBO CONTEST. THANKS TO THE SENIOR CLASS THIS DANCE PROVED TO BE ONE OF THE BEST EVER!

WHAT WAS YOUR MOST MEMORABLE TIME AT SHS?

THE NIGHT OF THE SCAVENGER HUNT WAS PRETTY WILD. THE WHOLE CLASS LOVED IT AND SO DID THE POLICE, ESPECIALLY DET. ALGER. MR. MAYO'S DONKEY WAS THE BEST THING THAT ANYONE GOT, BUT ROY DiPAOLA ALMOST WON WHEN HE TRIED FOR THE "GINA'S PALM READING" SIGN. I STILL HAVE SOME OF THE JUNK IN MY GARAGE.MATT MEEHAN

MY PARENTS WENT AWAY TO CALIFORNIA FOR THE "SINGING IN THE SHOWER CONTEST" (THEY LOST) AND I HAD A PARTY AFTER THE WAKEFIELD GAME. WELL, ALL I CAN SAY IS THAT IT WAS BETTER THAN ANY PARTY THAT COUMOUNDUROS EVER HAD. THE HOUSE WAS ALMOST SHAKING. I HAD NEVER EVEN SEEN HALF OF THE KIDS BEFORE. IT LASTED ABOUT THIRTY MINUTES AND THEN THE KEYSTONES CAME AND CLEARED US OUT.JOE HAGGERTY

I WAS AT THE CONCORD GAME AND MIKE DOHERTY AND I WERE STANDING ON THE TOP OF THE BLEACHERS (ABOUT 10 FEET UP) TRYING TO GET A GOOD LOOK AT THE GAME. AND IT WAS FREEZING OUT SO I WAS BOUNCING UP AND DOWN A LITTLE TO TRY TO KEEP WARM. THE NEXT THING I KNEW WE WERE ON THE GROUND. THE BENCH SNAPPED! MIRACULOUSLY, NEITHER OF US WERE HURT, BUT I COULDN'T BELIEVE WHAT HAD HAPPENED. OF COURSE WE SPENT THE REST OF THE NIGHT TRYING TO DUPLICATE THE FEAT, TO NO AVAIL.EVAN SKLADANY

THE NIGHT I GOT CAUGHT SNEAKING OUT OF MY HOUSE: AS I CREPT OUT OF MY BEDROOM WINDOW FEET FIRST, MY FATHER SAW MY FEET HANGING OUT OF THE WINDOW. HE THOUGHT THEY WERE THE FEET OF A BURGLAR. BEING 2:00 A.M., HE FEARED FOR MY LIFE AND OPENED THE FRONT DOOR (WHICH IS RIGHT NEXT TO MY WINDOW). PREPARED TO KILL THE PREDATOR, HE FIRST ASKED IF IT WAS ME. WHEN I SAID, "YES", HE THEN ASKED, "WHAT ARE YOU DOING?". I SIMPLY REPLIED, "NOTHING DAD". THAT FOOLISH REPLY GOT ME 2 WEEKS OF PUNISHMENT.BRENDA NOCELLA

ONE DAY, FRESHMAN YEAR, AFTER BASKETBALL PRACTICE, A FEW OF US THOUGHT THAT IT WOULD BE A GREAT PRANK IF WE HID THE COACHES KEYS ON THE RIM. UNFORTUNATELY, WE FORGOT TO TELL HIM THAT THEY WERE THERE. ABOUT 9:30, DAN FAUCON GOT A CALL FROM THE COACH ABOUT THE KEYS. THE NEXT DAY, PRACTICE WAS SHEER HELL AS WE RAN AND DID MANY OTHER TORTUROUS ACTIVITIES. I THEN ADMITTED THAT I DID IT AND LEARNED MANY VALUABLE LESSONS; THE MOST IMPORTANT ONE BEING, "DON'T GET CAUGHT".MIKE ROSA

THE SENIOR CLASS PLAY

ROBIN HOOD

THE FAMOUS TALE OF ROBIN HOOD AND THE MERRY BANDITS OF SHERWOOD CAME TO THE STONEHAM HIGH STAGE AS THE 1991 SENIOR CLASS PLAY. IT WAS THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CLASS PLAY EVER PERFORMED IN STONEHAM, WITH 26 SENIORS IN THE CAST OF 40 STUDENTS. MANY SENIORS, SUCH AS TODD STILLMAN, ADAM LARSON, JEN MURRAY, JOE HAGGERTY AND EVAN SKLADANY, MADE THEIR STAGE DEBUTS. DRAMA VETERANS, INCLUDING BILL CONNOLLY, LAURA CUTONE, BARBARA CAPOZZI, MICHELE LACEY, LAURA DIMATTEO, CELESTE KUPCZEWSKI, AND CHRIS ROACH, STUNNED THE AUDIENCE WITH THEIR PERFORMANCES ONCE AGAIN. THE AUDIENCE, WHICH CONSISTED OF STUDENTS, PARENTS, AND THE PLAYWRIGHT(PRESSURE!!), GAVE THE CAST AND CREW OF ROBIN HOOD A STANDING OVATION DURING BOTH NIGHTS OF ITS SHORT RUN. BUT WAIT! JUST WHEN THE SHERIFF THOUGHT HIS TROUBLES WERE OVER, ROBIN HOOD CONTINUED TO STEAL FROM THE RICH AND GIVE TO THE POOR... ALL THE WAY TO THE MASSACHUSETTS DRAMA FESTIVAL. DRAMA-FEST MEANT THREE MORE MONTHS OF REHEARSING EVERY DAY, EATING FAST FOOD IN THE AUDITORIUM AND PUTTING UP WITH VOCAL WARM-UPS...WE MUST BE CRACKERS!

WORLD NEWS

The senior year for the class of 1992 was filled with many events ranging from the political scene to the entertainment scene.

While we were on summer vacation, Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall retired. The conformation of his replacement, Judge Clarence Thomas, proved to be a real life soap opera. For three days in October, America watched as Professor Anita Hill told the Senate Judiciary Committee that Thomas had sexually harassed her nearly ten years ago. Thomas was eventually confirmed but Anita Hill had made the country aware of a problem that had previously been ignored.

Basketball star Ervin "Magic" Johnson made the country aware of another problem: AIDS. When his doctor diagnosed him with having the HIV virus, Johnson retired from the game so that he could spend time making heterosexuals aware that AIDS was not just a "gay" disease. Ironically, the same week, Wilt Chamberlain, in his new book, boasted he had slept with nearly 20,000 women during his basketball days.

While students from the Soviet Union visited Stoneham High School, their country's government was undergoing major changes. Mikhail Gorbachev was temporarily thrown out of office during a September coup. Boris Yeltsen, Gorbachev's former rival, became his strongest supporter and held the country together during the failed revolution. When Gorbachev returned, he vowed to continue with democratic reforms. The country that was once a superpower was in a political and economic disaster.

The same week of the Soviet coup, the eastern coast of the United States was hit by Hurricane Bob. Later, in November, another storm hit the Atlantic coast destroying hundreds of homes including President Bush's summer home in Kennebunkport, Maine.

The Boston Red Sox ended their season, and just after their final game, Manager Joe Morgan was fired. The Minnesota Twins became the World Series champions, beating the Atlanta Braves in game seven of the "worst to first" series.

The world came together for the 1992 Olympic games. The winter games were held in Albertville, France: Barcelona, Spain was to be the setting for the summer games.

Hollywood's biggest contribution to the big screen was Kevin Costner's Robin Hood. The small screen gave us Beverly Hills 90210, a show that gave teenagers a reason to stay home on Thursday nights.

And that's the way it was.

1991-1992 WAS AN IMPORTANT TIME FOR STONEHAM. TED RYAN LED THE NEVER-ENDING BUDGET CRISIS. ONE OF THE CUTS INCLUDED THE CLOSING OF THE STONE ZOO. ALSO, THE STONEHAM FLICK CINEMA, HOME OF MANY INFAMOUS HIGH SCHOOL DATES, WAS TORN DOWN DUE TO THE INCOMING SHAWS SUPERMARKET.

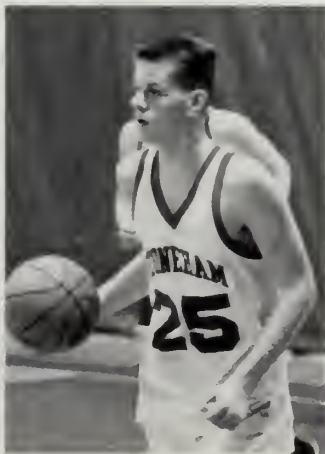

IN JUNE OF '91, PART OF FARM HILL SHOPPING CENTER WAS DESTROYED DUE TO LIGHTNING. YET THROUGH ALL THESE CATASTROPHES, NANCY KERRIGAN, A SHS GRADUATE, WON A BRONZE MEDAL DUE TO HER INCREDIBLE TALENT IN FIGURE SKATING, AND WILL CONTINUE ON IN THE '92 WINTER OLYMPICS.

The image shows the front cover of a book. The cover is decorated with a marbled pattern consisting of dark, irregular shapes on a lighter background. A solid black horizontal band runs across the middle of the cover. The word "SPORTS" is printed in a large, bold, serif font with a white outline, centered on the upper marbled section.

"...AND Woo! We're LOOKIN' FINE!" THROUGHOUT THE FALL SEASON, THE CHEERLEADERS ARE THERE. WHETHER IT'S A FOOTBALL VICTORY OR A SOCCER DEFEAT, WE KEEP THE SPIRITS OF THE CROWD, AND THE TEAM FLYING HIGH. WE HAVE TO WORK TWICE AS HARD TO GAIN THE RESPECT OF THE SCHOOL, BUT EVERY YEAR WE PROVE THAT WE ARE A SPORT!

OUR SEASON DOES NOT JUST CONSIST OF SUPPORTING OUR FOOTBALL AND SOCCER TEAMS. WE ALSO WORK HARD ON ROUTINES FOR OUR OWN COMPETITIONS. WE ARE DEFINITELY BECOMING A FORCE TO BE RECKONED WITH; OUR HARD WORK HAS PAID OFF. WE COULDN'T DO IT WITHOUT OUR COACH WHO WAS THERE WHENEVER WE NEEDED HER.

MANY MEMBERS OF THE SQUAD ARE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1992, WE WISH THEM AND THEIR CLASSMATES LUCK AND SUCCESS IN THE FUTURE. CONGRATULATIONS TO LESLEY FAGONE, KIM TERILLI, TERRY HOULE, AND NOREEN

How's my hair?

THE BOYS CROSS COUNTRY SEASON WAS A DEFINITE BUILDING EXPERIENCE FOR OUR COACH, MR. FILLBACK AND OUR YOUNG TEAM. THE TEAM TRIED NEW TRAINING TECHNIQUES FOR A NEW APPROACH TO THE SEASON. WE PUT IN A LOT OF MILES, AS A TEAM, TRAMPING THROUGH STONEHAM'S WOODS. THE USUAL PRACTICE WAS AN 8 TO 10 MILE JAUNT.

THIS NEW TECHNIQUE HAD TWO BENEFITS. FIRST, WE PRODUCED RESULTS. THE SEASON ENDED ON A 3 POINT LOSS FOR AN 8-1, SECOND PLACE FINISH IN THE LEAGUE TO THE PERENNIAL LEXINGTON. BUT ON THE UPSIDE, WE HAD A STAR, ADAM WALKER, WHO ONLY LOST ONCE IN THE LEAGUE, AND 3 ALL STARS. SECONDLY, THESE LONG RUNS GOT THE TEAM TO COOPERATE AND SUPPORT ONE ANOTHER. MR. FILLBACK NOTICED AND SAID, "HE NEVER FELT ANY CLOSER TO A CROSS COUNTRY TEAM OR ANY TEAM FOR THAT MATTER, THAN THIS ONE." THIS SEASON WAS DEFINITE SUCCESS AND NEXT YEAR THE TEAM WILL BETTER ITS PERFORMANCE WITH THE HELP OF JUNIORS MIKE "THE FABULOUS ONE" FABIANO, AND CHRIS SAUNDERS, SOPHOMORES KEITH ROGERS (ALL STAR), ADAM WALKER (ALL STAR), ADAM MARASCA, CHRIS MACDONALD, MATT DEMATEIS, AND ROARING ROBERT GREENE.

AS CAPTAINS, KEVIN MACKAY AND MICHAEL CAPONE, WE WOULD LIKE TO THANK OUR TEAMMATES AND COACHES AND WISH THEM MANY MORE SUCCESSFUL YEARS. IT HAS BEEN FUN.

THIS TEAM CAN TRULY BE CALLED THE "FAMILY" TEAM. OUR HARD WORK, STRENGTH AND DETERMINATION FOR SEVEN YEARS HAS MADE US A STRONG AND SUCESSFUL SQUAD.

WE MADE IT OUT ALIVE DESPITE THE WEEKS OF DOUBLE SESSIONS, FIELD HOCKEY CAMP, COACH CARBONE, AND OUR MANY FIGHTS, SUCH AS THE ONE BETWEEN JILL AND LYNN ABOUT STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE SOCKS.

WE'VE HAD A LOT OF FUN OVER THE YEARS, AND WE'VE HAD A LOT OF VICTORIES. THE TIMES WE SPENT LAUGHING AND SWEATING ON THE FIELD WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN.

THE GRADUATING SENIORS WOULD LIKE TO THANK THE YOUNGER TEAM MEMBERS AND COACH CARBONE. GOOD LUCK NEXT YEAR! "I CAN'T FIND THE BALL"

THIS YEAR'S VOLLEYBALL TEAM FINISHED THE SEASON WITH ITS BEST YEAR SINCE 1989. WE FINISHED SECOND PLACE IN THE NORTH SHORE LEAGUE. THIS FRIENDLINESS HELPED ALL THROUGHOUT THE SEASON BECAUSE EVERYONE HAD PLAYED TOGETHER BEFORE AND WAS USED TO THE STYLE OF ONE ANOTHER'S PLAY. THE STARTING LINUP WAS ONE OF THE STRONGEST EVER, AND THE SUBSTITUTIONS OFF THE BENCH PROVED TO BE AN EXTREMELY STRONG FORCE, AT TIMES IMPECCABLE.

SENIORS WHO WILL BE SORELY MISSED ARE: CO-CAPTAIN AND ALL-LEAGUER CHRISTINE BAIN, CO-CAPTAIN AND ALL-STAR ANDREA BOYAJIAN, ALL-LEAGUER CLAUDIA RIESS, JESSICA ANDERSON, JENNIFER ANDERSON, AND

WITH THE CLOSE OF THE 1991 GIRLS SOCCER SEASON THERE WERE MANY GOOD TIMES TO REMEMBER. THE PAST FOUR YEARS HAVE DEFINITELY BEEN AN EXPERIENCE TO SAY THE LEAST. IF ANY TEAM KNOWS WHAT IT IS LIKE TO HAVE TO HOLD YOUR HEAD HIGH WHEN YOUR DOWN, WE CERTAINLY DO.

SOME OF THE MOST UNFORGETTABLE TIMES INCLUDE SOCCER CAMP THIS PAST SUMMER, CAPTAINS PRACTICE IN THE RAIN, DOUBLE SESSIONS IN THE HEAT, (THE RELIEF FROM THE SPRINKLERS), AND THE SPAGHETTI FEAST.

Oh Boy!

HEY LOOK! SOMEONE DROPPED A QUARTER.

"HEY! WHAT CAN I SAY. THE TEAM TRIED ITS BEST." THIS QUOTATION BEST DESCRIBES OUR SEASON. THIS YEAR'S SOCCER TEAM HAS COME A LONG WAY FROM LAST YEAR'S TEAM. THE TEAM WAS ABLE TO PRODUCE OFFENSIVELY AND KEPT THE OTHER TEAM'S SCORING TO A MINIMUM. EVERYONE, INCLUDING THE J.V.'S, WORKED HARD FROM THE BEGINNING OF DOUBLE SESSIONS TO THE LAST GAME OF THE SEASON. THE TEAM'S HARD WORK PAID OFF BECAUSE WE SCORED 10 MORE POINTS THAN LAST YEAR AND WON TWO MORE GAMES AS WELL. THE TRI-CAPTAINS, JIM PALERMO, MIKE KHAM, AND MIKE DOHERTY, LED IN OFFENSE. THE SENIORS, WHO KEPT THE ENEMIES SCORING TO A NEW LOW (3 GOALS PER GAME), WERE COURAGEOUS AND FULL OF METTLE. THESE BRAVE MEN INCLUDE MARIO DE MECO, KEVIN MCNULTY, SHAWN CAMERON, DON MACLEOD, AND CHRIS DILISIO.

THE MEN WITH POINTS, LIKE MIKE KHAM, MIKE DOHERTY, JIM PALERMO, AND KEVIN FROST LED THE TEAM TO A NEW HIGH.

THESE SENIORS ARE GRATEFUL TO THE YOUNGER CONTRIBUTORS LIKE FRANCO DESANTIS, BURNSIE, JAY MEHAN, PADOVANI, AND DAVE DEGEORGE. ALSO, SPECIAL THANKS TO GEORGE IOACOM, OUR GOALIE WHO KEPT THE TEAM ALIVE. GOOD LUCK NEXT YEAR GUYS AND THANKS!

OH MY GOD! STONEHAM HIGH HAS A GOLF TEAM? YES, WE DO, AND WE'RE PRETTY GOOD. TO PUT IT IN THE WORDS OF IMMORTAL MIKE KHM, "HEY WE WON A FEW GAMES." AS A MATTER OF FACT, WE WON ENOUGH GAMES TO QUALIFY FOR THE STATE TOURNAMENT. UNDER THE WATCHFUL EYE OF COACH SEABURY AND CAPTAIN ROB OTERI, WE FINISHED THIRD IN THE MIDDLESEX LEAGUE. A CAUSE OF OUR SUCCESS WAS THE DEVELOPMENT OF PLAYERS SUCH AS PAUL "RUGGED" "I HIT A 150 YARD WEDGE" LEONE AND STEVE "THE WHINER" EOIVINE. BUT THE MAIN REASON THE GOLF TEAM SUCCEEDED WAS THE EFFORT PUT IN BY ITS THREE SENIORS. NOT ONLY WERE THEY INCREDIBLY HANDSOME, INTELLIGENT, AND MODEST, THEY ALSO COULD PLAY A LITTLE GOLF. ROB "I WANT TO BE JORDAN" OTERI, MIKE "I LIKE TO PULL BACK MY PUTTS AND TAKE THEM AGAIN" ROSA AND BOB "110" EOIVINE ADDED LEADERSHIP AND A LITTLE LAUGHTER TO EVERY ROUND. FRESHMAN SEAN "SIMMER DOWN" WOOD AND ERICH "A LEGEND" BUTTERS ADDED YOUTH AND VIGOR TO OUR AGING SQUAD. OUR JUN-

THE REST OF OUR TEAM CONSISTED OF YASOU THE OTTARRIS ELIOPOULIS AND BOB "THE VIRGIN" MERGEUR. WE WOULD LIKE TO THANK MR. CERRONE FOR DRIVING US TO OUR MATCHES IN THOSE CRAMPED LITTLE BUSES. THIS TEAM WORKED EXTREMELY HARD IN THE OFF-SEASON, AND IT SHOWED DURING THOSE GAMES THAT CAME DOWN TO THE LAST MINUTE. The Stoneham High Hockey team skated its way to the state tournament and came within one win of the Boston Garden in the 1992 season. With a regular season record of fourteen wins and six losses the team finished near the top of the Middlesex league. Highlights of the season included a win over perennial power Arlington, a victory over Reading for the first time in eight years, beating Wakefield and Marblehead in the tournament.

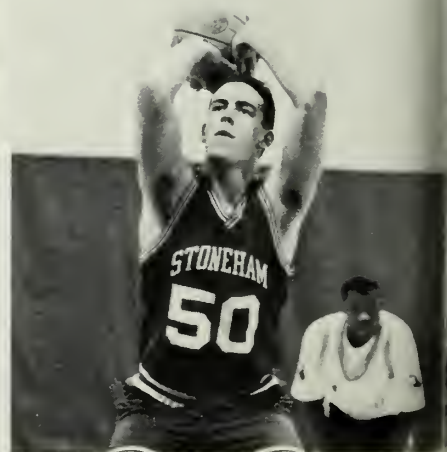

One of the reasons for their strong finish was their Finnish.....Connection. Teemu Numminen and Esa Nurmi were a power packed punch on the first line. Co-captain Mike Doherty rounded out this strong line. The Second line which included Rich Doherty and Jim Palermo was as good as the first. The Defense was bouyed by Sean Cameron and Steve D'Entremont as well as sophomore Jeff Cullen. If an opponent was lucky enough to get by our stellar skaters, then netminder/Co-captain Kevin Frost made the save. Rounding out the list of seniors who will be missed are roleplayers Rob Oteri, Shawn Downes, and Eric Roberts.

THE MIDDLESEX LEAGUE IS DOMINATED BY THE LIKES OF LEXINGTON AND BELMONT, TWO TEAMS THAT FIGURE TO MAKE IT DEEP INTO THE TOURNAMENT. DESPITE THE LEVEL OF PLAY AROUND THE LEAGUE, THE STONEHAM HIGH BOYS' BASKETBALL TEAM KEPT MANY CONTESTS CLOSE. DESPITE THEIR HARD WORK AND DEDICATION, THOUGH, THIS SCRAPPY TEAM COULD ONLY MUSTER TWO WINS.

A HIGH POINT FOR THE SEASON WAS JR. GUARD DEREK SARCHIONE'S NINE THREE POINTERS IN ONE GAME, A SCHOOL RECORD. LIKEWISE, JUNIOR FORWARD EDDIE "THE BLACK HOLE" HURLEY'S JUMPSHOT EARNED HIM A SPOT ON THE ALL STAR TEAM. STEVE BUSBY WAS CONSIDERED TO BE THE SURPRISE OF THE SEASON FOR MANY, BUT THE STONEHAM HIGH FAITHFUL KNEW LONG AGO OF THE SENIOR FORWARD'S MASTERY OF THE GAME. HIS REBOUNDED , DRIVES TO THE BASKET AND UNCANNY PASSES REMINDED EVERYONE OF FRENCH LICK'S FINEST. CO-CAPTAINS KEVIN PIRANI AND DAN FAUCON ALONG WITH SCOTT MANSON ALL PLAYED STINGY DEFENSE AND REBOUNDED RELENTLESSLY. Girls' Basketball was one of the success stories of the winter season. Led by Senior Guard Amy Whelan and high scoring forward Renée Lehmann, the Lady Spartans were spoilers in the state tournament until a loss to #1 seed North Andover ended the season. In addition to their strong Tournament play, the girls fought many hard battles against tough Middlesex League opponents.

Senior Nicole Capraro who was renowned for her rebounding prowess (Hey, Nicki, get them balls!) provided the team with a low post scoring threat. Similarly, Leo Carriglio was a stabilizing force in the backcourt. Six footer Jill Quatrocchi shore up the middle for this unbeatable starting five. Sophomore Kelly Goss was a good sixth person, while Stacey Sullivan was dunking away on the bench.

We'd like to thank our coach Pistol Pete Marinelli for running us hard and readying for victory. We'd also like to wish next year's team luck, Sheah right!

THE AGONY OF DEFEAT

THE AGONY OF DE-FEET

SOMETIMES I BREAK OUT IN A COLD SWEAT...HUH!

This year's Boys' Indoor Track squad ran to a 5-3-1 record and rose above and beyond expectations this season. This record is even more respectable considering the reputation of the tough Middlesex League. It all goes back to the weight room ya know and our hard work really paid off.

Our outstanding depth combined with strong senior leadership forced the team to great heights. Not only did we qualify six athletes for the all-state meet, but we also won the Class C State relays with a record breaking performance in the distance medley. To put a cherry on the sundae of the season, our troop won the Class C state championship, a feat that has not been accomplished in over twenty years.

Led by the incredible individual performances of Eric DelVecchio in the shotput, Mike Capone in the 1000 yds, Jim Scally in the 600 yds., hurdlers Dave DeCrescenzo and Chris Dilisio, and the stellar 4 by 400 relay team of Mike Rosa, Andy O'Brien, Jim Scally, and Mike Capone. Overall, this team will rank among the best in Stoneham High's illustrious track history.

"Too many folks go through life running from something that isn't after them."

"Awesome! Awesome! Totally!" With the help of the Winter Cheerleaders the SHS winter sports teams enjoy success on the court and on the ice.

Throughout the season, we stood by the boys' basketball team. They greatly appreciated our continued support. Kevin Pirani said, "When the other team was killing us and all we wanted to do was cry, it was the winter cheerleaders that kept us going." We want to thank the boys' basketball team for all the great times.

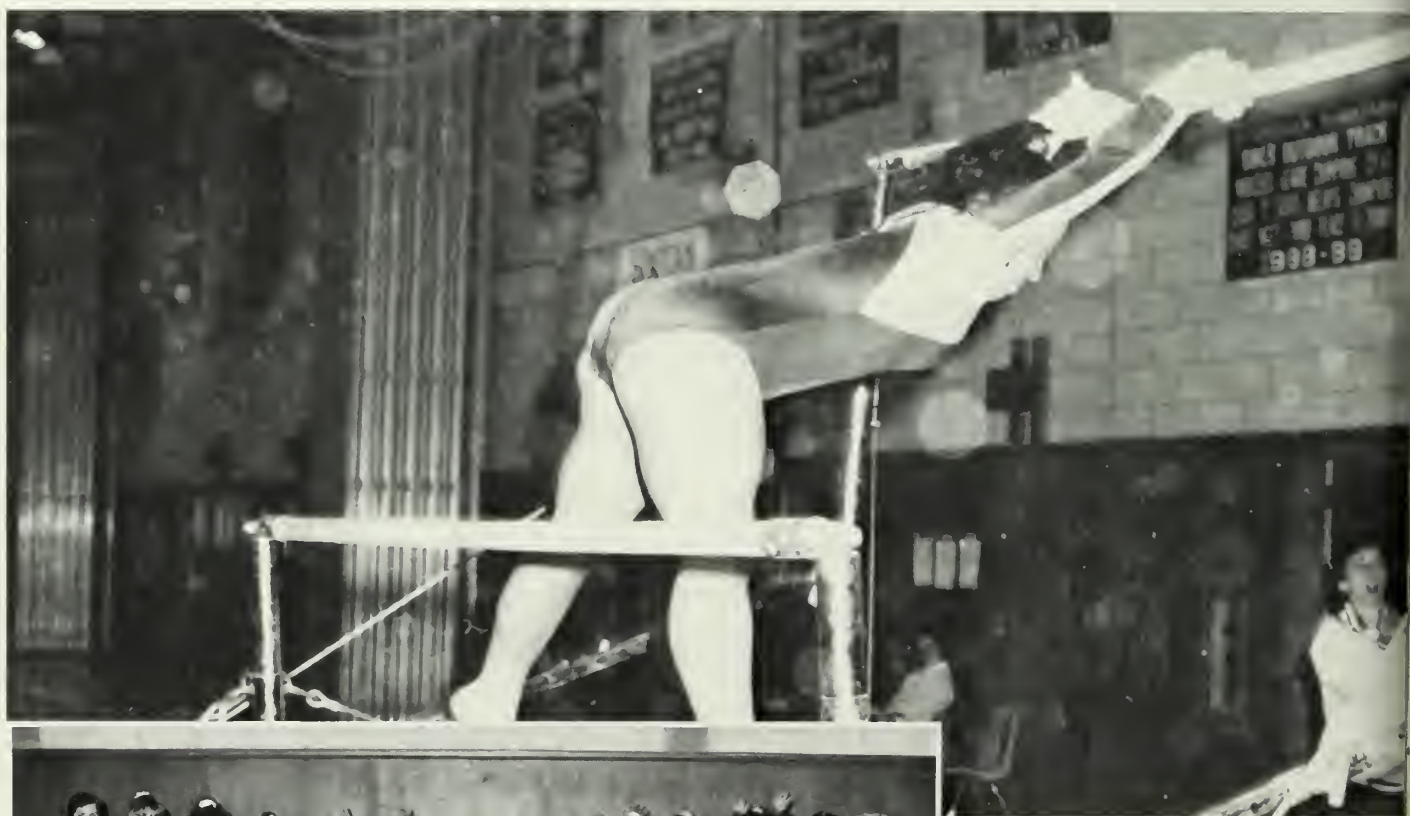

We yelled and screamed for the hockey team all the way to Boston University and the tournament. The multi-cultural force on ice thrilled us all the way up to the finn-ish.

We would like to thank our coach for being there when we needed her. This was her first year coaching and she brought a new vitality to our pep squad.

Congratulations to graduating seniors Amy Gerardi, Sarah Nardone and Heather Dujcik; they will be missed.

The Spartan gymnasts finished their regular season with a record of 5-2. Despite having been plagued with injuries, the girls still managed to attain a respectable third place position in the Middlesex League. It was a tough meet against Melrose and, in the end, it was a mere point that separated the Spartans from victory. Overall, the season itself was a tremendous success. Ms. Carbone and Mrs. Christofi kept the girls in top competitive shape; moving the mat for every blessed event helped them to build tremendous muscles. In addition, V-seat sit-ups and Chinese push-ups were the special treats that Stoneham's girls thoroughly enjoyed.

As the season came to a close, the teary eyed underclassmen had to say goodbye to their favorite seniors, Kerry O'Brien, Laurie Warren, Lisa Lentine, and Christine Bain. On a final note, certain individuals should be applauded for their achievements. In addition to earning a spot on the Globe All Scholastic team, Maria Zarrella also accompanied Kerry O'Brien and Michelle Magnifico on the All Star team. Also, Kerry O'Brien received the Coaches Award in the Middlesex League.

GIRLS' INDOOR TRACK

The SHS girls' track team once again proved to be a power to be reckoned with in the Middlesex League. Finishing with a record of 8-1, the girls came very close to capturing the crown. Led by senior tri-captains, Emily Rotondi, Courtney Cann, and Andrea Gillespie, the girls ran circles around their competitors and leapt over hurdles in a single bound. Other key athletes included Sandy Noonan, who ran the 300m hurdles, Tara Petrocelli, who threw the shot put, Michelle Motolla, who ran the 2 mile, Jaymee Seabury, who ran the 1000m, and Samantha Williams, who ran the 600m and the mile.

As always, the Class C State Relays were a highlight of the season. The 4x800 relay team also qualified for the State meet. Mr. Rocher and Mr. Porter were very pleased with the performances of their girls. Long track workouts and hills really did prove to be worth the sweat in the end.

THANKSGIVING DAY GAME

YOU DIDN'T HAVE TO HIT ME.

QUARTERBACK RUN

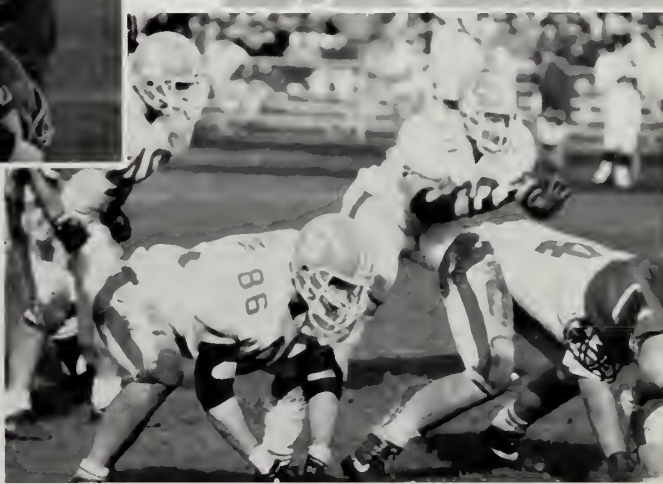

GIVE ME A KISS BIG FELLA

RUFF & TUFF?

WAIT. DON'T GO. I LOVE YOU!

A GREAT GAME THAT UNFORTUNATELY ENDED IN DEFEAT, THE TURKEY DAY GAME WAS ONE TO REMEMBER. THIS ONE WAS SPECIAL FOR IT WAS AGAINST FORMER COACH TOM KAZPERAZAK. STONEHAM WAS OUT FOR SOME READING BLOOD. IT WAS A TIGHT GAME THROUGHOUT ALL FOUR QUARTERS. NOT ONE TEAM WAS MORE THAN A TOUCHDOWN UP ON THE OTHER. THE SPARTANS STARTED OFF WITH A BANG AS THEY SCORED ON THE FIRST DRIVE. FROM THERE HOWEVER, IT WAS A SEESAW GAME. READING SCORED THEN SCORED AGAIN. THE SPARTANS STRUCK BACK FOR TWO TOUCHDOWNS. THEN READING'S FINAL TOUCHDOWN WAS SCORED ON A CONTROVERSIAL PLAY. THE BACK FOR READING WENT OVER THE TOP BUT WAS MET WITH A BANG BY ERIC DELVECCHIO ALONG WITH JIM SCALLY AND RYAN SULLIVAN.

THE ENTIRE TEAM PLAYED THEIR HEARTS OUT AS IT WAS THE SENIOR'S LAST GAME. IT WAS A FANTASTIC GAME PLAYED BY SENIORS KEVIN PIRANI, JIM SCALLY, ERIC DELVECCHIO, DAVE DECRESCENZO, AND ANDY O'BRIEN. ALTHOUGH THE FINAL SCORE STUNG, 19-18, THE EFFORT THE TEAM GAVE WAS TREMENDOUS AND ONE THEY SHOULD BE PROUD OF.

Todd, when it's late and you need a bite, where do you go to eat?

Funny you should ask. For a bite of homestyle cookin', I like the IHOP on Main Street. It is open till 2am and has the best chocolate milk in town. In fact, one of the waitresses, Robin, agreed to do some tasteful nudes for the yearbook but we were forced to back out on her after the Maplethorpe-endowment controversy. Besides, they make great fries too.

Chris, are you a man of simple tastes?

The happiest day of my life was a Monday. We had a double lab and Mr. Mongeau was absent. I am a man of simple tastes and two glorious periods in the Cafe was more than I could ask for. I ate and talked and talked and ate. I didn't do one bit of homework either. That's it. By the way do you want to hear about Robin Hood; I was the star. (Editors note: we were forced to cut Chris' story short. We apologize to all those Roach fans.)

Amy, Who is the worst driver you know?

Jim Scally likes to think that he is a good driver, but I don't believe him for a second. One day, while we were parking at Mama Anna's in Boston, Jim took his eyes off of the road for a second. I warned him, "Jim, Look out!" but he didn't listen. He banged into a car and then backed out so fast I thought that we'd hit someone behind us. I know that Jim got in another accident in front of the school but you'll have to ask his carpool or Coach Killilea about that.

How did you get your nickname, Greg?

The night that I got my nickname, "Crazy Burkie", is one that I will remember forever. There was a big party at the Pit and I was doing my best to impress the ladies. I thought, "What better way to impress the girls than walk through the fire?" So I did it and everyone cheered. Then, Firechomper Lee took a bite out of a flaming log. I couldn't let a Has-been beat me like that. There was only one thing I could do to save face. I took off all my clothes and danced through the fire in the buff. Lee couldn't top that one!

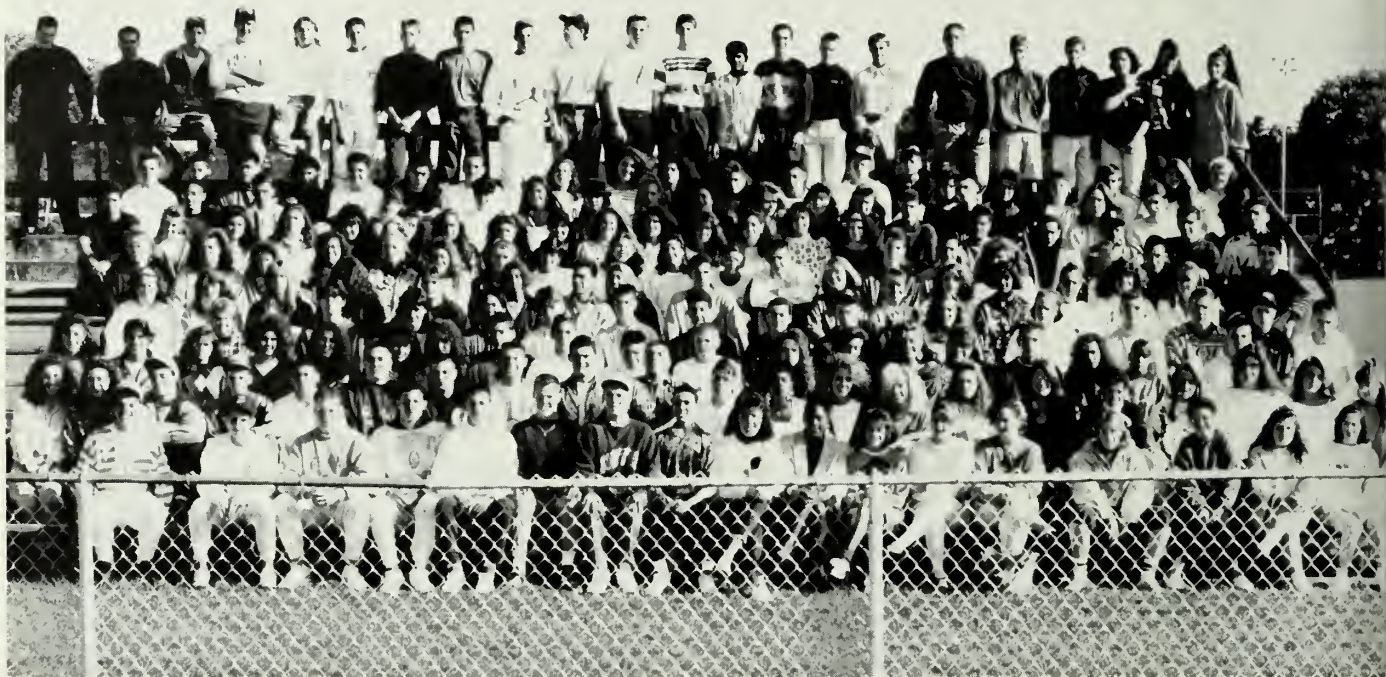

What is your fondest memory of Mt. Washington, Stacey?

I'll always remember when Mr. Mayo took our class to Mt. Washington for a weekend. We were on our way down from the summit when it started raining cats and dogs. I don't know what I would have done without my Poncho. When the rain finally stopped, two guys, naked as jaybirds, wearing only bathing caps and hiking boots passed us on the trail. Kerry O'Brien was so enamored that she slipped in the mud and, much like a turtle flipped on it's shell, was unable to get up without assistance. Kristin Gagne commented, "Wow" and the rest of us were in stitches all the way to Ma and Pa Pizza.

UNDERCLASSMEN

CLASS OF 1995

HOMECOMING 1990 BELONGED TO THE CLASS OF 1992. NOT ONLY DID OUR ROARING TWENTIES-THEME FLOAT WIN FIRST PRIZE, BUT OUR CLASSMATE EMILY ROTUNDI TOOK HOME THE TITLE OF HOMECOMING QUEEN. PLANS TO ENTER OUR FLOAT IN THE MACY'S PARADE IN NEW YORK WERE RUINED BY OUR FAILURE TO GET THE APPROVAL OF THE STUDENT COUNCIL. GO FIGURE.

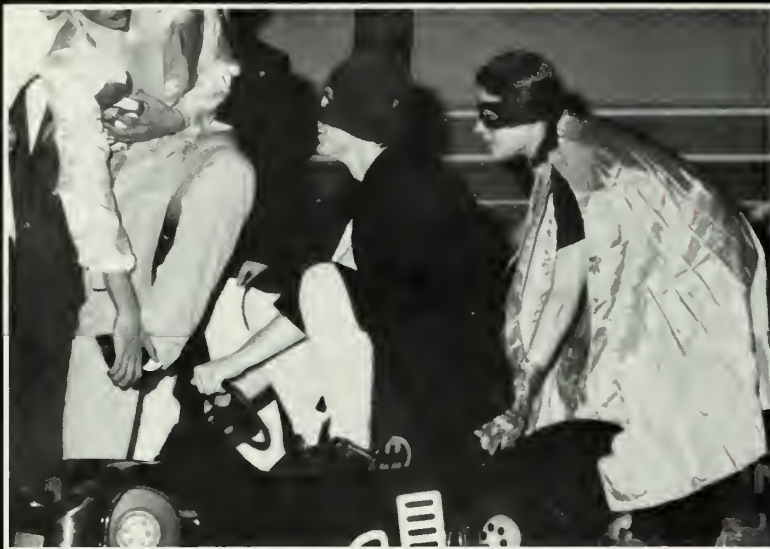

CARNIVAL BALL

Memorable moments from the past four years of Carnival Ball include Mike Capone's performance as a senior remembering his freshman days (1989), Mike Rosa's entertaining Church Lady (1990), Tom Morello's impersonation of Jimmy A. (1991), Don McLeod's perfect imitation of Mr. Ryan (1991), Kevin Pirani and Mike Khim as Milli Vanilli (1991) and Sarah Nardone's portrayal of Alice from "The Brady Bunch."

The 1992 Carnival Ball was a fun filled romp through the Twentieth Century. Driven by emcees Kristin Gagne and Tom Morello, the "Time Train" carried the king, queen, royal court, and the audience on a spectacular voyage where no Carnival Ball has dared to go before.

Guests of King Adam Larson and Queen Amy Gerardi, included Sonny and Cher, Elvis, The Brady Bunch, The Sweat Hogs, Larry Bird and Johnny Most, Ed Sullivan, Gilligan, Batman and Robin, and the Freshman. James Brown ended the evening with a crowd pleasing song and dance/hot tub party.

But there was some talent too. Seniors Barbara Capozzi, Kim Terilli and Maureen McCarthy showed off their vocal talents in their individual acts. Sophomore Dave Kurdzionak rocked the house with his rendition of "Run Around Sue." And as the "Time Train" arrived in the Nineties, no one could help but to dance to the MTV style performance of Andrew Granese.

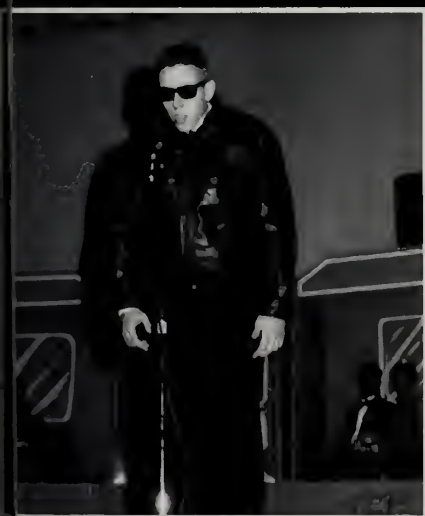

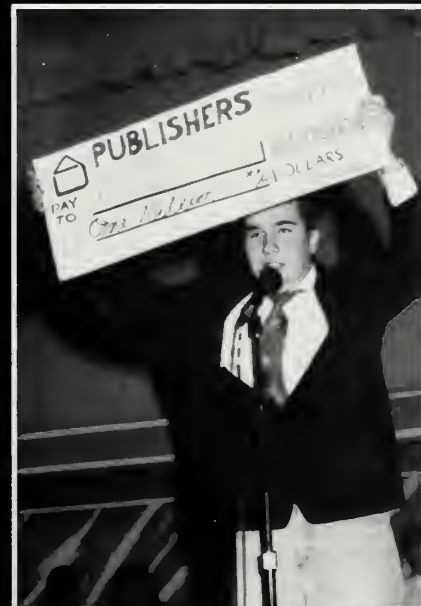

The Faculty Act was once again dominated by Kate Thayer and Dave Scannell in a wacky take-off of "Hit the Road Jack." Accompanied by guitarists Wayne Fillback and Phil Riley, Ms. Thayer brought down the house with her voice while Mr. Scannell impressed us all with his portrayal of a juvenile delinquent.

The Senior Class Act gave the Class of 1992 the opportunity to showcase its talent. Jen Murray's Jan Brady imitation was the hit of the night. Don MacLeod's flawless Elvis impersonation was as unbelievable as his sideburns. Steve Busby not only thrilled us as Larry Bird, but prevented an attempted coup by Sam the Butcher. The excitement was so great that the audience had to hold on to its shirt (and pants) during Greg Burke's show stopping antics.

All in all, the 1991 Carnival Ball was a real hoot for all who attended and will undoubtedly win quite a few awards come Tony season with it's only competition being the ever-popular musical saga, "Into The Woods."

Whether it be push-ups with Powers or crunches with Carbone, there is never a dull moment in gym class. Two days a week, whether you need it or not, every member of the student body heads down to the gymnasium for a full period of enforced sweating. Chris Roach, a senior, was heard saying, after one particularly vigorous game of dodgeball, "It's the highlight of my day! Every other class pales in comparison!"

Gym class has little in common with other academic courses. Noticably absent from the gymnasium are desks and a pencil sharpener. Likewise, there are no written tests, only button hooks. In gym class, you are likely to form friendships with kids you would otherwise seldom see--underclassmen, wierdos and short, thin people included. The friendships evolve into permanent bonds as the whole class unites to fight against the phys. ed. staff's tyrannical wrath.

A wise man once said, "There is nothing more fulfilling than walking down the hall, red-faced and sweaty, on the way to your next class, while babbling about how your team was cheated out of a goal in floor hockey." But a wiser man once said, "The education of the body is as important as the education of the mind." Living by this philosophy, Coach Powers and Coach Carbone have put together a challenging and colorful curriculum consisting of old favorites such as football, baseball and hockey combined with new and exciting sports such as bowling, juggling and that game with the jelly ball and the paddle.

Running the mile is a yearly rite of passage; make-up gym is a curse; uniform cuts are a blessing; and Coach Powers is a comedian in the fast-paced, fun-filled world of Physical Education at Stoneham High.

"Live long and happy class of 92!!!"

Nothing can brighten your day as quickly as a lunch period in the cafeteria. The good-natured line cutting, jostling for seats, delicious vittles and spotless facilities all contribute to this first class dining experience. Without a doubt, many consider the cafe to be a second home, spending countless studies and lunch periods inside the comforts of its well-muraled walls.

Cafe food has been called the closest thing to home cooking by many. Hot dogs and hamburgers with chocolate Dairy Drink and a side of tater-tots is a crowd favorite. The salad bar is frequented by teachers and other health conscious low-lives. Still others choose to squander their cash on foods with zero nutritional value such as Cheetos brand cheese curls and Twinkies. The recent addition of Champ's Pizza (It's a winner--Free sunglasses with the purchase of five, single serving, pizzas) has rounded out the offerings in style.

Even if one chooses to pass on school lunch in favor of a brown bag lunch, there is still plenty of excitement to be found within the walls of the cafe. With ninety chairs for every one hundred students, the seating crunch can be hazardous. Many a freshman has been trampled by the ruthless horde of seatless upperclassmen who believed they spotted one of the familiar blue plastic jobs. On the other end of the spectrum, second lunch can be solitary confinement for anyone unfortunate enough to have a fifth period study.

Big eater Bill Connolly says, "Lunch is my favorite class of the day," a sentiment echoed by many in the student body. Lunch is, for many, more than just an opportunity to replenish vital nutrients; it is a chance to socialize and mill around in an overwhelming setting-a skill that many will find useful in the real world.

"Do not follow where the path may lead. Go instead where there is no path and leave a trail."

It is nearly impossible to paint an accurate picture of every student's morning. The ideal of a hearty breakfast and The Wall Street Journal followed by a brief morning work-out too often falls by the wayside. In its place comes the average hell morning of a devil dog, The Herald and a three minute cold shower. But each person has his own routine. For example, one student, who shall remain nameless, begins each morning by watching "Under Dog." A second, less of a morning person, dips her head in a vat of boiling acid in order to shake off sleep and ease herself into her daily ordeal. There are a few terms, though, that creep their way into each and every morning, and the yearbook staff has taken the time to look them up.

Under "Alarm Clock" in the Improved American Dictionary it reads, in part, "The ear-splitting torture device designed to interrupt normal sleeping patterns." Yes, the alarm clock is another burden that society has thrust upon its youth, much like the depleted ozone layer and the greenhouse effect. It will be up to our generation to rid the world of alarm clocks, and make the morning safe for future generations.

According to the Improved American Dictionary, "Bus Ride" is defined as "No frills transportation." Each and every bus ride begins with a ten minute wait in either arctic cold or torrential rains. The excitement continues when one enters the carnival and finds, to one's surprise, that there are no seats left.

"Car Pool" is similarly defined in the Improved American Dictionary as "cramped, unreliable and dangerous no frills transportation." Senior Don McLeod says, "Sometimes my car pool doesn't understand that I'm a bear in the morning and they try my patience." One positive note about car pooling is that the near death experiences, a result of missed stop signs, failed brakes and other tiny dangers, help shake off the morning grogginess.

The Improved American Dictionary is incomplete in the fact that it does not define "Student Parking Lot." But that will not keep the crack yearbook staff from offering up its own definition. A student parking lot (get ready for big joke) is (big joke impending) a regular parking lot (here it is) but a mile away from the school! (Pause for big laughs, just like Carnival Ball.)

When listening to the announcements one discovers (if you are not lulled to sleep by Mr. Russo's monotone) the sheer number of clubs that thrive at SHS. The Dance Club, Latin Club, Spanish Club, Math Club and History Club are just a few of the many. Whether they exist to support a cause, as a social group or for the purpose of broadening one's list of activities for college, they are an important part of the infrastructure of Stoneham High.

The Latin Club is one of the largest and most visible groups in the school. Their charter states, "The goal of the Latin Club is to sell a lot of candy for Halloween." Being a largely social organization, the profit goes towards trips for the members. Past years' treks include adventures to Fenway Park and pilgrimages to Penn and Teller.

Founded by visionary Jim Romano in 1988, the History Club, in his own words, "never got off the ground this year." At one time boasting a membership of almost a dozen people, the History Club's ranks have dwindled. The club's amorphous goals include debating current world issues as well as discussing field trips to museums in the future. Alas, many of the club's members declare themselves "too involved" to dedicate themselves to this worthy club.

The Gym Leaders (a.k.a. Coach Powers' Toadies) have a firm footing in the athletic wing. It is their function to put gym classes through their pre-game warm-up.

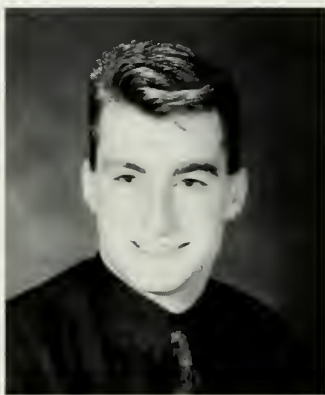

Famous for the way they slash prices, the DECA Club is the most serious minded of all school organizations. They do their best to sell candy, balloons, hats, mugs, etc. to the penniless student body. DECA is peerless in the field of advertisement. Their infamous commercials each week on Spartan Challenge and SNAP inform and entertain.

Stoneham High is full of landmarks. Everyday students walk by them, use them, look at them and never realize their significance. A few of these "landmarks" help our high school stand out as a place different from countless other high schools across the nation.

To begin with, we have the informative "Connections" bulletin boards. These lil' marvels bring us monthly news, reported by celebrities, on important issues. Their easy to digest, big print, format gives news that even high-schoolers can understand. The makers of various acne medicines and hair care products should be thanked for doing their bit for public awareness.

Our next "landmark" is undoubtedly the pair of bathrooms next to the cafe. These restrooms share the distinction of being the only ones open to the student body. Smoke-filled and graffiti infested, the walls do for the social scene what "Connections" does for political correctness. The addition of paper towel dispensers adds a touch of class that will be appreciated in the event that we are provided with soap to wash our hands with.

The rusted metal statues in the courtyard have been here a long time. Amateur historian Kerry O'Brien speculates, "The school could have been erected around them, they had the technology to do it." UFO freak, Stacey Foley believes that the wrought-iron shapes could have been put there by extra-terrestrials but admits, "It might have been the work of one of Mr. Schwalb's 3-d design classes." The origin of the statues may never be known, but what is known is that they are typical of efforts to beautify our school.

A final "landmark" that characterizes Stoneham High is not a landmark at all, but the ever changing plethora of signs and advertisements that paper our hallowed halls. Seen in a recent journey are signs extolling the virtues of sweetheart mugs for DECA, proclaiming the fact that the Sophomore semi is "lady's choice" (as if the guys are just pieces of meat with no emotions), and one marketing Jim Palermo's availability. As everyone knows, the signs are an easy way to pass the time and a quick way to tell what is going on.
